Inn Churches

Practical support for those that need it most

School and community cooking workshops

We are passionate about teaching nutrition and food skills to all ages, building confidence and essential life skills.

Team building and away days

Cooking together is great for team building and development. Work together to make a delicious healthy recipe, or compete for the best dish.

Jamie's Ministry of Food cooking courses

We partner with Jamie's Ministry of Food to deliver fun and friendly hands-on cooking experience. Join an eight-week course, single workshop or kids' class.

CIEH food safety training

We offer food safety at three levels: Introduction (level 1, ideal for schools or community groups), Foundation (level 2) and Intermediate (level 3).

Bespoke catering

We can cater for your formal dinner, community event, birthday, working lunch, afternoon tea or other event. Catered meeting or event space also available.

Inn Churches provides practical support to people who are homeless, vulnerably housed, hungry or cold, helping to make permanent and lasting change across Bradford.
